Mr. Moore moved to amend the resolutions, by inserting between the 4th and 5th in the series, the following :

Resolved, That a direct tax to support the Government in time of peace, is abhorrent to the people of this State, and, if collected in hard money, as proposed by the Sub-Treasury scheme, would endanger the tranquillity of the nation, and the integrity of the Union.

Which was decided in the negative—ayes 47, nays 56.

Ayes and nays called for by Mr. Moore.

Those who voted in the affirmative, were

MESSRS.
